ABSTRACT

As Part V of a series of publications of American Indian tribal governmental documents, this volume contains charters, resolutions, constitutions, and by-laws of some of the Indian tribes in Oklahoma. Twenty such documents are presented, representing the following Indian groups: Alabama-Quassarte, Caddo, Cherokee Nation and United Keetoowah, Cheyenne-Arapaho, Comanche, Delaware, Iowa, Kaw, Kialegee, Kickapoo, Miami, and Osage. Ten tribes are listed as not having developed their constitutions at the time of this writing. Presented in the initial section of the publication is the Oklahoma Indian Welfare Act, which authorized formation of self-governing bodies by the Indian tribes. As noted, the Act was also intended to promote the general welfare of Oklahoma's Indians and acknowledges the continued responsibility for guardianship and continuance of the policy of the government to establish justice for, and to promote general welfare of, Indians of the United States. Provided under the Welfare Act are sections of the statutes whereunder all Indians may be accorded all rights, opportunities, and privileges. A map shows locations of Oklahoma Indian tribes. (EL)

The Kiowa Tribe voters rejected their proposed Constitution and By-Laws at a December 9, 1968, election.

As one searches through the two monographs on the Constitutions and By-Laws of the Indian Tribes of Oklahoma, the study might appear to be incomplete because several notable tribes are missing. However, the report is presently complete; the following tribes simply have not yet developed their constitutions and by-laws:

Apache, Cherokee, Chickasaw, Choctaw, Creek, Kiowa, Missouri, Ojibwa, Quapaw, and the Seminole (of Oklahoma).

OKLAHOMA INDIAN WELFARE ACT

49 Stat. 1967

An act to promote the general welfare of the Indians of the State of Oklahoma, and for other purposes

Be it enacted, etc., That the United States, acting through the Congress, hereby readmits, reacknowledges, and assumes continued responsibility for the guardianship of our Indian citizens and, in exercising such guardianship, does hereby pledge such Indian citizens of all tribes that it is and will be the continuing policy of the Government to establish justice for and to promote the general welfare of the Indians of the United States.

SEC. 2. Pursuant to the general policy set forth in Section 1 hereof, the Government, acting through the Congress, hereby declares it to be for the best interest and general welfare of the Indians of Oklahoma to provide a plan whereunder all Indians may be accorded all rights, opportunities, and privileges and may eventually assume full responsibility as citizens in the said State and Nation. Pursuant to such policy the following specific things to be done are hereby set forth:

(a) The restricted lands, funds, or other property of the Indians of the State of Oklahoma, as herein provided are to be retained in the custody of the Secretary of the Interior, in trust, save as provided in this act, but nothing herein contained shall be construed as reimposing restrictions on any such property from which the restrictions have previously been removed.

(b) The restricted lands, funds, or other property belonging to competent adult Indians, as herein provided for, shall be relieved by the Secretary of the Interior of all restrictions as rapidly as the best interests of such Indians will permit and justify.

(c) The Government hereby declares its policy to be that the aged, infirm, and incompetent Indians shall have every possible care, assistance, and protection and that the Indian youth shall have educational facilities and advantages to the end that they may assume their place among the citizenship of the State and Nation.

(d) All claims held by any Indian tribe, group, or band against the Government shall be considered and adjudged, and such amounts as may be found to be due any such tribe, group, or band shall be paid and expended as may be provided by law.

(e) Pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of Section 2, the Secretary of the Interior at least once during each 4-year period shall cause to be created a competency commission, and such commission shall make a survey and examination of each adult Indian of the State of Oklahoma in order to ascertain whether such Indian is qualified and should have his or her restrictions removed on all or any part of any property, real or personal, of such Indian, and in the event the recommendations of such commission are favorable to the removal of the restrictions in whole or in part the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to issue patent in fee to such Indians for or otherwise remove the restrictions from such lands, property, and funds, as may be recommended by such commission, and which property and funds are in the possession or under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, however, That such competency commission shall consist of at least one qualified Indian representative of the respective tribe or tribes to be so visited and examined, together with the superintendent or other officer in charge of the respective agency or school having jurisdiction over such tribe or tribes, and one other member to be designated by the Secretary of the Interior for such purpose: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior at any time may exercise the authorities specified in Section 7 of this act.

SEC. 3. It is hereby declared to be the policy of Congress to provide adequate educational facilities for the Indian population of the State of Oklahoma, with preference to those of one-quarter or more of Indian blood, as follows:

(a) The present policy of providing funds for the payment of tuition to public State schools for Indian children shall be continued and maintained.

(b) All existing Indian boarding schools shall be continued as now operating until otherwise provided by law.

(c) Funds may be made available for the purpose of constructing, equipping, and maintaining school buildings in such sections as may be deemed necessary for carrying out the policy stated and the intent of this section.

(d) The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to make diligent effort to provide adequate educational facilities for all Indian children of school age: Provided, That preference in the boarding schools shall be given to Indian children without means of support, Indian children retarded because of lack of educational facilities, and orphaned Indian children,

SEC. 4. From time to time, as conditions require, funds shall be provided for maintenance of existing boarding and day schools, hospitals, and sanatoria, and for the construction of such additional day schools, hospitals, and sanatoria to provide adequate school and hospitalization facilities for the Indians of Oklahoma, with preference to those of one-quarter or more of Indian blood.

SEC. 5. That when used in this act the term "tribe" shall be construed to mean any Indian tribe, organized band, or group of Indians composed of persons on the classified rolls of the Indian Office or persons containing one-half or more of Indian blood and residing in the State of Oklahoma.

SEC. 6. For the purpose of providing lands for Indians in the State of Oklahoma, the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to acquire, through purchase, relinquishment, gift, exchange, or assignment, any interest in lands, water rights, or surface rights to lands, within or without existing reservations, including trust or otherwise restricted lands now in Indian ownership, allotted or inherited, whenever said Secretary deems it advisable to permit the present Indian owner or owners to part with the same or their interests therein. In the sale of any restricted Indian land, pursuant to the terms of this or any other act of Congress, the Secretary of the Interior shall have a preference right, in his discretion, to purchase the same for or in behalf of any other Indian or Indians of the same or any other tribe, at a fair valuation to be fixed by appraisement satisfactory to the Indian owner or owners of such restricted land, or if offered for sale at auction said Secretary shall have a preference right, in his discretion, to purchase the same for or in behalf of any other Indian or Indians by meeting the highest bid otherwise offered therefor. Title to all land so acquired or set aside shall be taken in the name of the United States, in trust for the tribe, band, group, or individual for whose benefit such land is so acquired, and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to designate or proclaim the tribe, band, community, or group of Indians for whose benefit such land is so acquired, and said Secretary is further authorized to prescribe such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary to control the use, management, and operation of such lands for the benefit of the Indians, including the assignment of the right to use part or parts of such land by individual Indians, the ownership of any improvements placed thereon by or at the expense of the occupant to remain in such occupant and to be devisable and inheritable under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, and not otherwise: Provided, That in accepting title to any individually owned restricted Indian land for the benefit of any tribe or group of Indians, the Secretary of the Interior, in consideration for such conveyance, may assign the same land to or for the benefit of the former Indian owner or owners, for such period or periods as the said Secretary may deem proper, including a further right or power in such former owner or owners to lease such land to third parties, upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed as granting or recognizing in any such individual occupant or his or her heirs, any title to any tribal or communally owned lands so occupied, or as giving to the courts or the State of Oklahoma any jurisdiction over any matter affecting the title to, right to use or occupy, or the ownership of any improvements located on any such tribal or communally owned lands; all of which questions are hereby committed to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Interior. Any restricted land, funds, or other securities belonging to Indians of the State of Oklahoma shall, while held by the Secretary of the Interior, be free from any and all taxes save those provided by existing law.

SEC. 7. That at any time prior to the expiration of the existing period of trust or other restrictions against alienation of any lands, funds, or other property belonging to any Indians of the State of Oklahoma, whether held under a trust, tribal, or other form of patent, deed, or any other instrument containing restrictions against alienation, the President of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized in his discretion, to extend such trust or other restricted period for such further period or periods as he may deem best: Provided, however, That during such trust or restricted period, or any extension or extensions thereof, the Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, whenever satisfied that the best interest of the Indian owner or owners of such restricted property, and that of his immediate family, would best be served thereby, may, with or without application from the Indian owner or owners, remove the restrictions in whole or in part, in such manner and under such rules and regulations as the said Secretary may prescribe: Provided further, That before removing the restrictions from any land, funds, or other property, belonging to any adult restricted Indian, without the consent of such Indian, the Secretary of the Interior shall give at least 30 days' notice in writing to such Indian owner to show cause why such action should not be had: Provided further, That in any case wherein a restricted Indian has applied to the Secretary of the Interior for the removal of his or her restrictions on land, property, securities, or funds and such application has been rejected, and in any case wherein the Secretary has acted to remove restriction or issue a patent in fee without the consent of the Indian owner of the restricted property, an appeal will lie to the Federal court under whose jurisdiction the land is located and if the application is for the removal of restrictions on property, securities, or funds only, then the appeal will lie to the Federal court having jurisdiction of the legal residence of the applicant and if the Federal court shall find that the action of the Secretary of the Interior in denying such applications was arbitrary, or without due regard to the best interests of the Indian applicant and that of his immediate family such court may, in its discretion, overrule the action of the Secretary of the Interior and the decision of the Federal court shall be final and binding upon the Secretary of the Interior. In all cases where appeals are authorized as provided herein, the applicant is entitled to have a certified copy of all papers, including the application and order of rejection, and such applicant shall pay all necessary expenses in connection with the preparation and certification of such transcript: Provided further, That, in the event an appeal is taken as authorized herein and such appeal is denied by any Federal court, then the costs of such appeal shall be assessed and taxed against the applicant: And provided further, That nothing contained in this act shall be construed as authorizing the removal of restrictions on Osage headrights owned or possessed by persons of Indian blood, which shall remain inalienable, except by will, as now provided by law.

SEC. 8. That the provisions of Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of the act of January 27, 1933 (47 Stat. 777), entitled "An act relative to restrictions applicable to Indians of the Five Civilized Tribes in Oklahoma", be, and the same hereby are, made applicable to all Indians of said State, regardless of tribe or degree of Indian blood, and all such Indians having any restricted lands, funds, or other property shall have the right, at their election, either to create private trusts out of such restricted property, pursuant to the terms of said act, or allow the same to remain subject to supervision of the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That it was not intended by the enactment of Section 1 of said act to make it retroactive, to extend restrictions on lands other than homesteads of the Indians therein described, or to restrict funds which otherwise were unrestricted after April 26, 1931.

SEC. 9. Any group of Indians residing on any area of tribal land or on land acquired by the United States for the use of Indians shall have the right to organize for its common welfare and to adopt a constitution and bylaws, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe. The Secretary of the Interior may issue to any such organized group a charter of incorporation, which shall become operative when ratified by a majority vote of the adult members of the organization voting: Provided, however, That the total vote cast shall not be less than 40 percent of those entitled to vote. Such charter may convey to the incorporated group, in addition to any powers which may properly be vested in a body corporate under the laws of the State of Oklahoma, the right to participate in the revolving credit fund and to enjoy any other rights or privileges secured to an organized Indian tribe under the act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984).

The Secretary of the Interior may from time to time delegate and convey to a corporation so chartered, subject to any qualifications that may appear necessary or desirable, any or all powers now vested in the Secretary of the Interior or in the Commissioner of Indian Affairs with respect to the management or control of lands, funds, or other property held or enjoyed by the corporation or its members, the administration of services performed by the Interior Department for such corporation or its members, or the regulation of the conduct or affairs of such corporation and its members. Such action shall become effective when ratified by a majority vote of the adult members of the corporation voting: Provided, however, That the total vote cast shall not be less than 40 percent of those entitled to vote. Wherever the management and control of its funds shall be vested in an Indian corporation, such funds may be deposited in any national bank within the State of Oklahoma or otherwise invested, utilized, or disbursed in accordance with the terms of the corporate charter.

SEC. 10. The Secretary is authorized and directed to establish an Oklahoma Indian Credit Corporation, hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation", to issue a charter to such corporation, defining its powers, and providing for a board of directors to serve without pay and to consist of seven members, one of whom shall be the director of credit of the Indian Credit Administration, and four of whom shall be representative Indians of the State of Oklahoma, and to appoint, at a salary determined by him, a manager for such corporation. In addition to any powers which the Secretary may delegate to such corporation necessary for the proper performance of its functions, such corporation shall be authorized in its charter to purchase stock in and to make loans to Indian cooperative credit, producers, consumers, marketing, and land management, associations and to individual Indians as defined in the act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984), under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That no loan shall be made to any individual unless the establishment of a cooperative credit association in an area reasonably convenient to such individual has been proved to the satisfaction of the corporation not to be feasible: Provided further, That no loan to any individual or association nor purchase of stock shall be made without the approval of the manager of the corporation. For the purposes and expenses of the corporation and cooperative associations organized pursuant to this act, there shall be appropriated, out of the Treasury of the United States, the sum of $2,000,000.

SEC. 11. Any 10 or more Indians, as defined in the act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984), who reside in convenient proximity to each other may petition the corporation for a charter for a local cooperative association for any one or more of the following purposes: Credit administration, production, marketing, consumers' protection or land management. Upon approval of the petition by the corporation and by the Secretary, the Secretary shall issue to such person a charter defining the powers of such cooperative association, the district within which it shall operate, and the conditions of membership, and prescribing the manner of conducting its business. The provisions of this act, the regulations of the Secretary of the Interior, and the charters of the cooperative associations issued pursuant thereto, shall govern such cooperative associations but in those matters not covered by said act, regulations, or charters, the laws of the State of Oklahoma, if applicable, shall govern. All credit associations shall, and any other cooperative association may, possess voting and nonvoting stock with a par value as fixed in the charter. The nonvoting stock shall be purchased by the corporation or otherwise taken by it in exchange for loans made to the cooperative associations in such proportion to the loans made as may be prescribed in the regulations of the Secretary. The voting stock shall be issued only to members of the cooperative association, and must be purchased by every member thereof to the amount required in the charter of the association; except that every credit association shall require its members to possess stock to the amount of 5 percent of the face value of any loan. Any member may pay for such stock either by cash supplied by him or through assignment to the association of a part of his patronage dividend. In any stock or nonstock cooperative association, no one member shall have more than one vote, and membership therein shall be open to all individuals of one-half or more Indian blood residing within the prescribed district. Any Indian, regardless of his degree of blood, who has relinquished to the Secretary title to land and who has been assigned land by said Secretary pursuant to Section 6 of this act is entitled to become a member of a land-management association. The officers of all cooperative associations must be approved by the corporation, and all books and accounts of such associations shall at all times be open to inspection by the corporation or the Secretary.

SEC. 12. The corporation shall continue until otherwise directed by act of Congress; and the charters of all cooperative associations organized pursuant to this act shall not be amended or revoked by the Secretary except after a majority vote of the membership. The charters of the said corporation and cooperative associations may convey the right to make contracts, to acquire, hold, and dispose of real and personal property necessary and incident to the conduct of their business, to prescribe fees and charges, subject to the regulations of the Secretary, for loans and other services, to buy and sell stocks in their own or other associations or corporations; and such other powers as may, in the judgment of the Secretary, be necessary and incident to carrying out the powers and duties described in this act. Said corporation and cooperative associations may sue and be sued in any court of the State of Oklahoma or of the United States having jurisdiction of the cause of action, but a certified copy of all papers filed in any action against a cooperative association in a court of Oklahoma shall be served upon the corporation. Within 20 days after such service or within such extended time as the trial court may permit, the corporation may intervene in such action of the Secretary, upon the request of the corporation, may remove such action to the United States district court to be held in the district where such petition is pending by filing in such action in the State court a petition for such removal together with the certified copy of the papers served upon the corporation. It shall then be the duty of the State court to accept such petition and proceed no further in such action. The said copy shall be entered in the said district court within 20 days after the filing of the petition for removal, and the said district court is hereby given jurisdiction to hear and determine said action.

In addition to the foregoing powers the cooperative associations may, by delegation from the Secretary of the Interior, receive the power to manage, operate, and assign lands purchased or acquired by the Secretary pursuant to Section 6 of this act and to regulate the leasing thereof and the disposition, use, inheritance, and devise of the improvements placed thereon.

SEC. 13. The provisions of this act are to be considered, held, and construed as supplemental to the rights, privileges, and benefits set forth and provided in the act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 994): Provided, That the Indian tribes and Indian citizens of Oklahoma shall have equal rights, opportunities, and privileges under the provisions of the last-mentioned act when applicable: Provided further, That all funds appropriated under the several grants of authority contained in said act for the purchase of land as provided in Section 5 thereof; for the purpose of establishing a revolving fund as provided in Section 10 thereof; for the making of loans to Indians for the payment of tuition and other expenses in recognized vocational and trade schools as provided in Section 11 thereof; are hereby made available for use under the provisions of this act, and Oklahoma Indians shall be accorded and allocated a fair and just share of any and all funds hereafter appropriated under the authorization herein set forth.

SEC. 14. For the purpose of carrying out the several provisions of this act and supplemental to the authorizations contained in the act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984), funds are hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and all sums appropriated pursuant to this authority shall be expended under the direction and supervision of the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That specific authority is hereby granted to appropriate funds for--

- (a) General support and civilization, including education;

SEC. 15. The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

SEC. 17. This act may be cited as the "Oklahoma Indian General Welfare Act of 1935".

THE CHEROKEE NATION

The following letter was received from Earl Boyd Pierce, General Counsel of the Cherokee Nation.

"Principal Chief W. W. Keeler of the Cherokee Nation recently referred to me your letter relating to our Constitution, with the suggestion that I cooperate with you in your interesting venture.

"You will recall that Congress, commencing in 1893 and ending April 26, 1906, enacted a series of Statutes which directly affected our Constitution and laws, as follows: 27 Stat. 612; 28 Stat. 910; 29 Stat. 321; 30 Stat. 62; 30 Stat. 495; 32 Stat. 716; 33 Stat. 189; 34 Stat. 137; 35 Stat. 312.

"As you know, all citizens of the political Government of the Cherokee Nation at Statehood in 1907 became full-fledged citizens of the new State of Oklahoma, and like other citizens of the State are governed by the State Constitution and State laws. The Constitution and laws of the Cherokee Nation were published in bound volumes and may be found in many of the good libraries of the United States.

"Congress has the acknowledged power to abolish the Government of any American Indian Tribe, but its power to abolish the Tribe itself has long been doubted. See Section 28 of the Act of April 26, 1906, 34 Stat. 137. In 1948, the Cherokees created an Executive Committee with authority to advise the Principal Chief on all Cherokee matters. The sole source of legal power is vested in the Principal Chief under Federal law, and for over fifty years Congress has shown no disposition to change this situation, even if it was desired.

"With continued interest and concern of Congress, we are hopeful that adequate attention can be given to the needs of our worthy Full Blood Cherokees, who, as you know, are faced with many residual problems growing out of the allotment process forced upon their forebearers at the turn of the century."

Sincerely,

July 23, 1959

Mr. Will J. Pitner
Area Director
Anadarko, Oklahoma

We regret that we have not been able to reply sooner to your letter enclosing the minutes and resolution of the general council meeting of the Kaw Indian Tribe of Oklahoma establishing a governing body to speak for the tribe.

In our previous letter of December 23, 1958, we did recognize the Kaw Indian Business Council as the official governing body of the tribe to speak and act in behalf of the tribe. However, please advise this council that we are in accord with your comment regarding Section 5 of the resolution. We cannot approve this provision because it attempts to usurp the prerogative of Congress to decide upon the manner of distribution of a judgment fund and purports to disinherit collateral heirs. We are, however, approving the balance of the resolution, but the tribe should clearly understand that this is not organization under the Oklahoma Welfare Act as this can only be accomplished through an election pursuant to Secretarial regulations.

Sincerely yours,

ROGER ERNST

Assistant Secretary of the Interior

A General Tribal meeting of the Kaw Indians of Oklahoma was held in the meeting place at Washunga on Sunday, October 12, 1958.

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman, Tom Dennison. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Crisp. The minutes stood approval and the Chairman asked for old business--as there was no old business brought forward for discussion, the chairman then called for new business. At this point the chairman explained to the tribal members the importance of passing a resolution setting forth rules and regulations governing the tribe, thereby organizing the Kaw Indian Tribe under the Oklahoma Indian Welfare Act.

The Chairman then read the sample resolution which had been drafted by the Council members section by section, explaining each section fully as he proceeded. After a thorough discussion by the tribal members a vote was taken on the resolution-- the vote was 38 in favor of the resolution and no opposition.

A general discussion of past Kaw Indian history was held and the meeting was adjourned.

THE OSAGE TRIBE OF INDIANS OF OKLAHOMA

"The Osage Tribe is not an organized tribe under provisions of the Indian Reorganization Act, approved June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984), or the Oklahoma Welfare Act, approved June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1967), and therefore does not have a tribal constitution or by-laws."

Howard Johnson, Superintendent
Osage Agency, Pawhuska

The Superintendent was kind enough, however, to send a Field Report of the Bureau of Indian Affairs completed in 1953 entitled, The Osage People and Their Trust Property. Several miscellaneous passages are reproduced here, from this publication, to explain Osage Tribal organization.

Organization for Executive Decision.

"1. The Osage Council. This body consists of a principal chief, an assistant principal chief, and eight members of the council. They are elected for terms of 4 years each by the qualified electors of the tribe under regulations published in 25CFR, Part 18. The next election of tribal officers will be held on the first Monday in June 1954. Regular meetings of the council are held on the first Monday of each month. Special meetings may be called at any time by the principal chief or the Superintendent. All actions of the tribe in respect to management of its mineral resources, and in the management and disposition of certain other assets, originate in the tribal council, and are subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. The tribal council performs important and influential advisory functions in the formulation and execution of administrative and legislative policies in respect to the management of individual and tribal trust assets, and in the appropriation by Congress of tribal funds for the administration of Osage affairs.

"2. The Osage Agency. The supervisory authority of the Secretary of the Interior in respect to the management of tribal assets, with minor exceptions, has been delegated to the Superintendent. Supervision of the leasing, development, and conservation of mineral resources, including collection of bonuses, rents, and royalties, is exercised through the Agency Branch of Minerals. Supervisory functions in respect to the issuance of permits to occupy town lots for dwelling purposes in the Osage village reserves is exercised through the Branch of Land, and in respect to the repair, maintenance, and use of tribal owned administrative facilities, through the Branch of Administration. The Superintendent and appropriate members of his staff attend all regular and special meetings of the tribal council, except those rare occasions when the council is closeted in executive session. Any proposed change in program or procedure, when initiated at the Agency level and affecting the tribal interest, or any group of tribal members is fully discussed with the council and action is usually deferred until agreement can be reached thereon, except the annual budget estimate of tribal funds for the administration of Osage affairs. In the latter case, if agreement cannot be reached within definite time limits, the differences are fully set out and transmitted through channels to the Central Office. When such disagreements have arisen in the past, the Council has been afforded an opportunity to present its case to the Central Office and to the appropriate committees of Congress." (Pp. xlviii-xlix).

"Osage Constitutional Government. A Constitution of the Osage Nation was adopted by the tribe on December 31, 1881, and a tribal government patterned after that of the Five Civilized Tribes was established. The government was organized with three divisions: a National Council vested with legislative authority; an Executive Unit consisting of principal chief, and an Executive Council composed of these officers and three Counselors appointed by the National Council upon recommendation of the principal chief; and a Judiciary System of a Supreme Court, Circuit Courts, and Lower Courts. Three delegates to the National Council and a sheriff were specified to be elected from each of five election districts encompassing the reservation area. The two chiefs were to be elected at large, and the judges of the Supreme Court and Circuit Courts were to be elected by members of the National Council. All officers of the government were to serve two-year terms.

"This tribal government of the Osages endured until 1900, when the Department of the Interior ordered its abolishment. The reasons for this action were set forth in the annual report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs for the year 1900, as follows:

'A crisis in Osage governmental affairs was reached in the election of tribal officers in 1898. ...[and] in another dispute over the election of members of the national council.

'These and other considerations impelled the office, on February 21, 1900, to recommend the issuance of a Departmental order abolishing the Osage national government, excepting the national council and the offices of principal chief and assistant principal chief. Such an order was issued March 30. May 19 the office recommended the abolishment of the national council which was ordered by the Department May 21, 1900.

'The principal causes that led to the abolition of the Osage Tribal government were: (1) Acrimonious disputes between the two factions over elections; (2) entire absence of harmony between the Osage tribal officers and the Indian agent in the administration of tribal affairs; (3) the selection of ignorant men as officeholders, and (4) the profligate use of moneys received from permit taxes.'" (Pp. 11-12).

Tribal Organization.

"The Osage Tribe was excluded from the provisions of the Oklahoma Welfare Act (49 Stat. 1967), because of its objections on the ground that its tribal organization authorized by Section 9 of the Act of June 28, 1906 (34 Stat. 539), as amended by Section 7 of the Act of March 2, 1929 (45 Stat. 1478), is ample for its needs. The latter statutes in substance provide for the election each four years of a principal chief, assistant principal chief, and eight members of the council under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. The existing Osage election regulations (25 CFR 18.4), provide that any member of the Osage Tribe 21 years of age or over, whose name appears on the quarterly annuity roll at the time of the last quarterly payment preceding the date of election is eligible to vote in tribal elections and hold tribal office. The provisions of the regulations concerning voting of absentee members of the tribe were adapted from the Oklahoma State election laws.

"The tribal council is authorized by law to grant leases on tribal property, subject to approval of the Secretary of the Interior; to determine the bonus value of any tract offered for lease for oil, gas, coal, or other minerals; and the tribal council, subject to approval of the Secretary of the Interior, may authorize the use of tribal funds for specific purposes in amounts additional to the tribal funds annually appropriated by the Congress for the support of Osage Agency and pay of tribal officers.

"The Osage Tribe does not have a constitution and by-laws or corporate charter. The tribal council functions somewhat like a board of directors of a corporation, but its authority is limited to the transactions involving tribal resources mentioned in the preceding paragraph. The council does not enact ordinances governing the conduct of members of the tribe and there are no tribal courts in existence on the reservation.

"In civil matters, Osage Indians may sue and be sued in state and Federal courts as in the case of other persons. The county courts of Oklahoma have jurisdiction in probate matters.

"The reservation area is 'Indian country' as defined in 18 USC, Section 1151, and state or Federal criminal jurisdiction in particular cases requires a consideration of the nature of the offense, the locus of the offense, and whether the persons involved are Indian or non-Indian. The subject of criminal jurisdiction is further complicated by the provisions of Article 1, Section 3 of the Oklahoma Constitution, which contains a disclaimer of jurisdiction over Indian lands until the Indian title is extinguished." (Pp. 48-49).

Organization for Executive Decision (cont'd.).

"1. The Osage Council. ...The statutory powers of the tribe, subject to the limitations mentioned, are listed below. The tribe, through its council, may:

- (a) Provide for the sale of the tribal reserves, consisting of 197.5 acres at Grayhorse; 160 acres at Hominy; 160 acres adjacent to the townsite of Pawhuska; 17.3 acres in the reservoir reserve; and 87.5 acres included in the reserves for the Osage Agency and the Agent's residence, together with all buildings located on said reservations in the townsite of Pawhuska. (Ninth and Tenth subdivisions of Section 2, Act of June 28, 1906, 34 Stat. 539.)
- (b) Makes leases for oil, gas, and other minerals in the tribal mineral reserve. (Section 3, Act of June 28, 1906, supra.)
- (c) Offer not less than 25,000 acres during any one year of the unleased portion of the tribal mineral reserve for lease for oil and gas mining purposes. (Section 3, Act of June 24, 1938, 52 Stat. 1034.)
- (d) Determine the bonus value of any tract offered for lease for oil, gas, and other mining purposes. (Act of July 25, 1947, 61 Stat. 460.)
- (e) Determine the royalties to be paid to the Osage Tribe under any mineral lease made by the council. (Act of June 15, 1950, 64 Stat. 215.)

"The tribal council also performs important and influential advisory functions in the formulation and execution of administrative and legislative policies in respect to the management of individual and tribal trust assets, and in the appropriation by Congress of tribal funds for the administration of Osage affairs. (Pp. 139-140).

Tribal Affairs.

"Act of June 28, 1906 (34 Stat. 539). Section 9 provided for the biennial election of officers of the tribe, such officers to be a principal chief, an assistant principal chief, and eight members of the Osage tribal council. The Section provided that elections should be held in a manner to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that in case of a vacancy in the office of the principal chief, the assistant principal chief should succeed to the office; that vacancies in the tribal council should be filled in a manner to be prescribed by the council; and that the Secretary of the Interior should have authority to remove from the council any member for good cause, such cause to be determined by the Secretary."

"Act of March 2, 1929 (45 Stat. 1478). Section 7 amended Section 9 of the Act of June 28, 1906, supra, to provide for quadrennial instead of biennial elections of tribal officers, such officers to hold office for 4 years instead of for 2 years as provided by the former Act; to provide for filling vacancies in any of the tribal offices, including that of principal chief, in a manner to be prescribed by the tribal council; to provide that the Secretary shall remove a member of the tribal council for cause only after such member has had an opportunity to appear and defend himself; and to provide that the tribal government as constituted by the Section shall continue to January 1, 1959.

Pursuant to the above mentioned provision in the Act of June 28, 1906, as amended by this Act of March 2, 1929, that elections of tribal officers shall be held in a manner to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Part 18 of Title 25, Code of Federal Regulations, prescribes the election procedure.

The tribal council has not formally prescribed a method of filling vacancies in the tribal offices, as provided by the statutes above mentioned, but in practice all vacancies are filled by majority vote of the council." (Pp. 190-191).
